

POLITICS ONLINE ENRICHMENT

Podcasts

- 1. Today in Focus (KS4 & KS5)—Produced by the Guardian. Listen to the story behind the headlines for a deeper understanding of the news. Click here to listen.
- 2. Politics Weekly (KS4 & KS5)—The Guardian's political editor, Heather Stewart, and deputy political editor, Jessica Elgot, are joined by commentators, experts and politicians to unpack the week's biggest stories in politics. In Politics Weekly Extra on Fridays, Guardian columnist Jonathan Freedland invites guests to help analyse the latest in US politics. Click here to listen.
- 3. The Daily (KS4 & KS5)—Produced by the New York Times. These podcasts are twenty minutes long and are released a day, five days a week. They cover world politics, but focus mainly on US politics. Click here to listen.
- 4. Freakonomics (KS4 & KS5)—Podcasts that look at key issues impacting the world and the USA. They investigate these issues and speak to experts who have insights on them. Many of the episodes focus on politics. Click here to listen.
- 5. Americast (All Key Stages)— A BBC produced series that looks into current affairs in US politics. Click here to listen.

Virtual Experiences

- 1. Houses of Parliament 360° virtual tour (All Key Stages). Click here to view.
- 2. Tour of US Capital (All Key Stages). Click here to view.

Humanities Department

